A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS
WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN
AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP
WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

FESTIVITIES in connection with the annual Continental Congress of the D. A. R., which convenes on Monday, will begin this week, a banquet having been arranged for Saturday evening by the National Officers Club. It will be given at the Willard, with Mrs. G. M. Brumbaugh as chairman of arrangements.

Mrs. Harding has arranged to receive the delegates to the conference on Friday afternoon, April 21, at 5 o'clock. The president general's reception, always one of the most important events of the conference, will be given on Tuesday evening, April 18, when Mrs. George Maynard Minor will receive at Memorial Continental Hall for the delegates and alternates to the conference. That same evening a ball will be given by the Abigail Harman Rice chapter, D. A. R., for the pages on duty at the conference.

Mrs. Minor, the president general, by the way, is not able to accept any engagements for dinner or luncheon on account of the press of business before the congress this year.

Mrs. Minor and the members of the national board of management will be the guests of honor at a reception which Mrs. Lars Anderson is giving on Thursday, April 20. Another important function on the calendar is the banquet to be given at the Washington Hotel on Saturday evening, April 22.

Other festivities already planned are the reception which Mrs. Dunstan U. Fletcher is giving on Wednesday, April 19, at the Congressional Club and Mrs. George M. Young's reception, also at the club, for the North Dakota delegation. Moreover, parties will be given by the North Carolina Daughters for Mrs. William M. Reynolds, who is their candidate for president general in next year's elections, and by the Pennsylvania Daughters for Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, whom they are supporting for the same office.

Italian Ambassador Leaves for Coast.

The Italian ambassador, Senator Rolando Ricci, left Washington yesterday for California, and expects to be absent six weeks. He is accompanied by Guido Bugelli, special attaché of the embassy.

Capt. Piero Civalieri, naval attaché of the embassy, is already in California.

The Spanish Ambassador and Mme. Riano entertained a company of sixteen informally at dinner last evening.

Miss Catherine Hughes, daughter of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes, who has been in New York for a week or ten days, is expected back in Washington today.

Mrs. Herbert Hoover will return to Washington on Saturday after spending several weeks in the West. Secretary Hoover, who accompanied her to California, came home a week or ten days ago.

Mrs. Miles Poindester was hostess at an informal luncheon today in compliment to Mrs. William La Follette and Miss Eva La Follette, who are leaving Washington this week after a visit of several months for their home in Spokane.

Mrs. Gordon Lee and Miss Alice Page will be hostesses at bridge, followed by tea, this afternoon at the Congressional Club. The club is to be decorated with spring flowers in yellow and green. There will be fifteen tables.

At the tea following the bridge the hostesses will be assisted by Mrs. H. N. Taplin, Mrs. Howard Reeside and Mrs. Charles R. Crisp.

Mr. and Mrs. William Castle, jr., entertained at dinner last night at the Chevy Chase Club for Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano Robbins.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Anderson have invitations out for a dinner on April 18.

Capt. Carlo Huntington, assistant military attaché of the Italian embassy, has been relieved of duty here and will sail shortly for Italy to rejoin his regiment. Mme. Huntington will accompany him.

The former Premier of Greece and Mme. Venizelos were the honor guests at luncheon yesterday of Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell Carroll, who entertained at the Cosmos Club. The guests included the Minister of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes and Mme. Grouitch, Senator William H. King, Dr. and Mrs. David Jayne Hill, Miss Anne Darlington, Mr. Michalopoulos and Mr. Glyciferides.

The military attaché of the French Embassy and Mme. Dumont entertained at luncheon yesterday in their home at 1622 Connecticut avenue. Their guests included the naval attaché of the Brazilian Embassy, Capt. Grace Aranha, the assistant naval attaché of the British Embassy and Mrs. H. A. Brown, the assistant naval attaché of the Brazilian Embassy, Lieut. Comdr. Guilherme Ricken, and Lieut. and Mme. Jean Labat.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Elmer Dyer entertained six at dinner last evening at the New Willard.

Mrs. Alfred Pembroke Thom will entertain at a matinee party and tea on Saturday for Miss Vivian Gordon Brown, whose marriage to Ensign Gerald Desmond Lincke, U. S. N., will take place on Easter Monday.

Miss Brown will entertain the members of the bridal party at supper Sunday evening following rehearsal of the wedding ceremony.

Dr. V. de Sokolowski, of the Polish legation, entertained a small company at the Shoreham at luncheon yesterday, having among his guests Miss Katherine Mackay and Miss Camilla Sewall.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Boynton have returned to their home in New York, after spending the winter here.

Mrs. Joseph Noel entertained a company of fourteen at luncheon yesterday at her home in Eighteenth street.

The mayor of Omaha, Neb., and Mrs. James C. Dahman announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Dahman Collet, to Cortlandt Chesterfield Baughman, lieutenant commander, U. S. N., April 12, in New York City. Comdr. and Mrs. Baughman will be at home after May 1, at 3509 Idaho avenue northwest, Washington.

Mrs. Baughman is the eldest daughter of the mayor and Mrs. Dahman. Comdr. Baughman is now on duty in the Navy Department and was engineer officer of the U. S. S. Florida before his assignment to Washington. For two years and a half during the war and after he was a cabinet officer of the Dominican Republic, under the military government, as minister of public works, communications and agriculture.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Halliwell who are members of a large party from Lakeville, Conn., spending the week at Wardman Park Hotel, entertained at a luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham Hotel. There were covers for seven.

Scene of Poster Exhibition Changed.

The exhibition posters for "The Cross Triumphant," which was scheduled to be held at Mason House for a week, beginning Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock will be held instead, at St. John's parish house, 513 Sixteenth street, which has been very kindly offered for that purpose by the Rev. Robert Johnston, D. D., rector of St. John's Church, Lafayette square.

The exhibit will be open to the public on Saturday of this week, and every day of Easter week; also on Tuesday evening, April 18 from 7 until 9 o'clock.

A number of prominent artists of Washington are expected to send large posters in color, in addition to designs contributed by the art students and public school students of the city.

The exhibit is being held under the direction of Mrs. L. McD. Sleeth, art instructor of the National Cathedral School for Girls, under whose auspices the pageant is being produced for the benefit of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. Sleeth is being assisted by Miss Bertha Noyes and a number of other Washington artists.

At the close of the exhibit, the posters will be placed in the churches, as well as in the hotels and in the shops.

Lucien Powell's exhibition of oil and water color paintings at the Arts Club, 2017 I street, is proving one of the most popular displays of the season.

Friday will be the last day to see these beautiful pictures, of which a dozen of the important ones have already been sold, including one of the "Grand Canyon" views, the "Sphinx and Pyramids" at twilight, "Venetian Scenes," and several from the Holy Land set of water colors, painted in the actual environment. The public is invited.

Mrs. Byron Andrews has taken an apartment at Wardman Park Hotel.

The District branch of the Consumers' League announces a debate of keen interest to women between Miss Maud Younger, legislative chairman of the Woman's Party, and Mrs. Florence Kelley, general secretary of the Consumers' League, on the question of equal rights for women.

Miss Younger is leading the Woman's Party campaign to do away with discriminations against women in the laws of the various States, and will tell of the party's work on behalf of women at the debate, which is a feature of a luncheon at the Woman's City Club next Monday at 1 o'clock.

Miss Younger and Mrs. Kelley took part in a similar debate at the Hotel Commodore in New York Tuesday night at a dinner attended by prominent women leaders of New York.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Gibson, with their son, Frank, are spending the Easter holidays in Cuba.

Mrs. Crete P. Hutchinson, a national officer of the League of American Pen Women, and well known in the club circles of Washington, has returned to this city after spending the winter in New York City and Cleveland, Ohio, and will make her home here for the present, having arranged to carry on her professional and literary work from this city, and attend the national convention and book fair of the League of American Pen Women.

Mr. and Mrs. John Joy Edson are planning to go to California next month to visit their daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Edson, who has been living there for about a year.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is solid under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.
